EXEMPTION BOARD SUMMONS OUR BOYS TO APPEAR

About 30 Young Men from this Place and Vicinity Among 202 Summoned for Military Duty Yesterday.

The Exemption Board of District No. 2, 13th Assembly District, which includes Sonoma Valley, has summoned the 202 men from which the draft quota of 101 will be chosen. Notices have been mailed and the boys, among whom are about 30 from this vicinity, must appear at Santa Rosa next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, one third of the list going up at a time for examination.

Exemption blanks and affidavit forms will be given to each person making a claim, and within twenty days the bulk of the work will be well under way, seven days being allowed to file the exemption claim, ten days for the affidavits in support of the claim, and three days for the board to accept or reject the claim.

Among the well known young men from here called in the first draft are: E. Lynn MacQuiddy already in the army, where he is instructing a class at the Presidio in medical hygiene; Jacob Yenni, son of a well known dairyman, Joseph Shuld, Sonoma, Jung Mook, a Chinaman, Wm. Gelderman, hotel clerk at Fetters, Geo. E. Chambers, Glen Ellen, Vitrio Ottomella, a vegetable grower, Frank Gieskopf, carpenter's helper at Mare Island, Maxine Delaney, Schellville, Zephaniah Marcy, horseshoer, Robert H. Canning, farmer, Tom Richards, son of Agua Caliente Springs proprietors, Hazen Cowan, noted cowboy, Rudolph Wagner, traveling salesman, Richard M. Vernon, farmer, Chas. S. Barnum, long county road work, Henry Gieskopf, butcher, Wm. Perry, grocery clerk who has enlisted, C. F. Hall, former employee of Fetters Springs, Louis Volquardsen, brother of Jacob Volquardsen of the U. S. S. German Krupski, El Verano, Simon Sartori, dairyman, Frank Balaban, Sonoma, Leland Brubeck, farmer, Van Stadel, farmer, Louis E. Haring, butcher, G. V. Converse, V. Tomasi, Annabale Maffei, proprietor of a butcher shop Sonoma. Others drawn include many mental defectives from the State Home who will be exempt and it will thus take many more from the list to fill up the quota. Should it not be possible to get the 101 men from those called to be examined first, more will be summoned in the order of the drawings, two for each one necessary to make up the number being required to appear at some subsequent time.

MOSQUITO BOARD

MEETS TODAY

The Mosquito Abatement Board for Sonoma Valley meet today and will try and arrive at an estimate of the cost of ridding the district of mosquitoes or at least conducting a campaign of sufficient extent and intensity to put to flight the winged pests of this locality. They will then ask the Supervisors to levy a tax to carry on the work.

CLUBWOMAN RETURNS FROM OUTING TO NATIONAL FOREST

Mrs. Carrie Burlingame has returned from a delightful trip to the Sequoia National Forest and other points of interest in the King's River Canyon country. The well known clubwoman was so charmed with the section in 1916 that she returned this season to explore new country. After going to Hume she joined a party of four and with saddle and pack animals took the 40 mile trip to the great forest and encamped near the giant tree, General Sherman. This great monarch of the forest is said to be the oldest living Sequoia Gigantea and is 36 1/2 feet in diameter and over 200 feet tall.

From this point Mrs. Burlingame and party took side trips to Alta Peak, Moro Rock and viewed the grandeur of the Great Western Divide from an altitude of 6,000 feet. Fishing was a favorite pastime and the deer, protected by law, are plentiful and very tame. No firearms are allowed to be carried into the Forest.

After many fine trips the party broke up, Mrs. Burlingame continuing to Camp Kanawya, where she stayed another week and enjoyed the grandeur of Mist Falls, Roaring River and other noted features of the wonderland.

Enroute home the traveler was the guest of San Francisco friends. Her next trip may be to the Grand Canyon. Mrs. Burlingame is a true nature lover and delights in the fine outings she takes each season and recounts much of interest upon her return from various famed sections.

Miss Mildred Fields of Oakland has been visiting here.

Mr. Joe Dowdall was an N. W. P. passenger Wednesday.

Mrs. Allen Gale was in Santa Rosa the fore part of the week.

Mr. Cliff has purchased a Ford.

Miss Lorna Clements was up from S. F. Sunday to visit her mother.

Mr. Weatherhead was in San Francisco Tuesday.

Pretty little Antoinette Froment had the misfortune to sprain her ankle this week.

Mrs. Bernice Sholden is visiting her mother, Mrs. Small.

G. Riegelhuth and daughters, former residents of Sonoma, were here Sunday last from San Francisco.

Miss Gertrude Calderwood spent the week end in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Abrogast have bought a Ford car.

Mrs. McElroy, Mrs. E. H. Johannsen with Miss Edda Johannsen at the wheel motored to Santa Rosa Wednesday.

The show at Boyes Springs theatre this week was fine. A wonderful bill with clever artists, so everyone pronounced it.

The Croquet Club completed the series this week and prizes went to Mrs. George Lowell and Miss Minnie Cook. The finals at the home of Mrs. Geo. Chase was the occasion of a very pleasant afternoon.

Miss Cochran, a distinguished Spanish scholar who has been on the board of Spanish pensions, has been engaged to teach the language and also commercial studies at the Sonoma High School. She succeeds Maurice Tracie, resigned.

CITY'S BUSINESS IS TRANSACTED

August Session of the Board of Trustees Full of Routine Matters

The Board of City Trustees were in regular August session Wednesday night, a full attendance being recorded at roll call. A few public spirited citizens lent their presence to the gathering but big public questions were not up for discussion at this meeting and there were no pyrotechnics as at previous gatherings about the municipal council table.

The following bills were allowed and ordered paid.

C. C. Cowgill, City Attorney, salary $25.00
J. Andrieux, supplies $35.00
A. Adler, supplies $36.04
H. Gottenberg, salary etc. $15.65
C. Telephone & Light Co. service $76.50
J. Murray, police $10.00
Thos. Lewis, surveying $76.60
R. H. Albertson, salary $15.00
R. Quartaroli, labor $60.00
Mission Garage, supplies $1.00
M. Topete, janitor $7.50

The library report was read and accepted.

A request was made by Steve Anazitos for a restaurant and liquor license, was acted upon favorably and a special ordinance governing the restaurant business will be drawn up. Some time ago application was made by Bills Grill for a restaurant license, but it was discovered that no present ordinance covered the request. With the drafting of the new ordinance the restaurants will be able to serve liquid refreshments with meals. Bids for city printing will be advertised for, and awarded at a special meeting on August 20. The City Dads adjourned until that date.

ASSOCIATION SUES POULTRYMEN

The Poultry Producers of Central California, through their attorneys, Sapiro, Neylan and Ehrlich, transferred several suits from the City and County of San Francisco to the Superior Court of Sonoma County for trial. The defendants are Pierson, Schrems, Bacher and Hansen. The court is asked to compel a specific performance of the contracts and agreements which plaintiff says were entered into in the matter of egg and poultry shipments.

FALSE STORY

A false report was circulated that Wayne Batchelor, Sonoma's member of Company E, had disappeared and was thought to have deserted. There was no foundation whatever for the malicious report as Wayne has been at the Letterman Hospital in San Francisco, where he was assigned for treatment for an ulcerated tooth. Because he did not go direct to the hospital after leaving Pulga the story was circulated that he had dropped out of sight.

Wayne has many friends here who resent the publication of the reflection on the young soldier boy.

LOVED PARENTS PASS AWAY

Mrs. C. Terry and Mrs. E. Evans Leave Sonoma Relatives to Mourn Loss of Good Mothers.

The Death Angel has called two good mothers to their reward the past week and brought sorrow to the bereaved daughters and sons in Sonoma valley.

Mrs. Callie Terry of San Francisco, mother of Mrs. Fred Hansen and Mrs. Mangels passed away on the 30th after a lingering illness. Mrs. Terry was a great sufferer but bore her trouble with the greatest fortitude and as in her days of health was ever sweet and patient despite her incurable malady. Prior to her illness of the last year she had enjoyed the best of health and was as young in spirit and companionable as her daughters. She had an ideal married life and leaves a devoted husband besides her children to mourn her passing. Mrs. Terry was only 59 years of age.

Mrs. Elizabeth Evans, mother of Ralph and O. R. Evans of the California Telephone and Light Company, died in Santa Rosa Monday after a short illness. The lady was a respected and beloved resident of this county and also had a host of friends in Ukiah where the funeral was held Wednesday. She was aged 61.

Ralph Evans of this place went north to be present at the last rites and carried with him the heartfelt sympathy of the community in his great loss.

EDITORS OF COUNTY WERE HERE SUNDAY

Sonoma had the honor last Sunday of entertaining the editors of the Sonoma County Press Association.

After a busy and spirited session at the City Hall where matters pertaining to the printing craft of this county and the dignity of the profession were discussed all related to Cincio's for a ravioli dinner. The menu was par excellence and included some of Sonoma Valley's best vintage of the Cabernet type.

While some of the scribes are "dry" when it comes to wines the appellation never applies to their editorial columns for Sonoma county has a bunch of pretty interesting quill wielders. There is Reuben Baer of the Healdsburg Enterprise who is really a "bear" when it comes to consistent editorial policy and the courage of his opinions, and Ande Nowlin of the Scimitar who makes 'em all sit up and take notice when he expresses his views. Frank Cook of the Healdsburg Tribune who set type on the old Alta-California with H. H. Granice and is a newspaper man from the ground floor up to the new quarters he now occupies. So much for Healdsburg's talent. Cloverdale was represented by C. T. Coffee of the Reveille, devoted friend of the vineyards and quietly responsible for many clever editorial squibs. Sebastopol sent Harry Lutgens of the Times who needs no introduction to his old home town of Sonoma.

Sonoma Library Has Many New Readers and Patrons This Year

The report of the Sonoma Valley Public Library which is annually made to the Trustees of the city, was placed on file Wednesday night and it was gratifying to the City Dads to find interest gaining in the up-to-date institution. Librarian Kate McDonnell has given out 7,583 books to adults during 1916-17 and 1,808 to juveniles, a total of 9,381 volumes, 1516 more than during last year. Fiction proved most popular, 6973 books were in this class of reading.

In addition to the books 1011 magazines were loaned out, over 200 having been given over the desk in one month alone to high school students for references. The educational value of the 28 magazines subscribed for and donated regularly each month is obvious.

Sixty-three new patrons or regular borrowers of books were recorded this year, the present registration showing 641 to have cards.

Sonoma's library was organized by the Women's Club in October, 1903 and was taken over by the city of Sonoma August 5th, 1905. It is in flourishing condition and a splendid asset to the community.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bish had as their week end guests, Mr. and Mrs. A. Anderson and son of Mare Island, and Miss Regina Pepper of Seattle. Mr. Anderson is chief gunner on the Battleship Oregon.

Most practical printers in the county, a university man at that, and the father of seven little Olmsteads. Some record that!

Homer Wood, Petaluma Courier's editor of judicial bearing, and who no doubt will make journalism a stepping stone to a good political plum some day.

Last but not least was the county seat contingent, Ernest Finley who can explain anything glibly from an em quad to a purchasing agent's predilection for the PressDemocrat. Elmer Mobley, grown gray in the service and decidedly wise. Ralph Sage who is a well seasoned journalist and editor of the Sonoma County Herald.

To complete the editorial party was the charming wife of Elmer Mobley and his vivacious sister-in-law, Mrs. Ross and the local press representative, Q. L. Hose and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Murphy.

After the meeting many of the editors motored home via the Black Point Cut-off.

BAG BIG GAME

OPENING DAY

The deer season opened Wednesday Thursday morning Bloss Keechler and Louis Felder came to town with two fine deer, trophies of the first hunt of the season.

Bloss, a noted shot, with his friend Louis Felder, who knows considerable himself about getting a bead on big game, went to the Mark West Section and before the day was over brought down a 165 pound 4 pointer and a forked horn. Bloss had the deer located and they made the trip to the hunting grounds in Felder's car. The hunters soon got on the trail of the elusive game and when Bloss saw the prize he got him first shot for his aim is always true and he has brought in the first deer of the season for several years past. Louis Felder was a lucky hunter too.

The venison was first class and the editor's table was remembered by the boys and the deer meat tender and of fine quality.

Go out and get another, Bloss! Even if you did have your picture taken to prove you had the goods, you can get another deer and have another picture taken, so don't be too long about it for you're in good shooting trim right now and the editor could use a ham very nicely next time.

MRS. OGG AT

ALLETOWN, PA.

Mrs. Florence Ogg, daughter of B. F. Campbell, is here from Honolulu and is at Allentown, Pa., where her brother, Donald Campbell is stationed with the Ambulance Division of the University of California. At first in Philadelphia, she moved to Allentown to be near Donald and together they have been enjoying some wonderful trips. Mrs. Ogg is the wealthy widow of the late Wm. F. Ogg, plantation manager of the Hawaiian Islands and is an experienced traveler. She has arranged many fine times for Donald and herself, which have been much appreciated by the young army man.

Mrs. Ogg will later come to California where she has many relatives and friends.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

Judge Justi was here yesterday to preside in a case where Judge Small was a witness—the case of Bianchini vs. Murray. It is a matter of suit for costs in the old Peitri Cigar Company judgment.

Judge Justi also sat in the case of Murray vs. Pest. Constable Murray is trying to recover $80 for the care and keep of live stock involved in the proceedings some time ago between Pest and Franklin.

BOYS MEET

IN HONOLULU

Uncle Sam's Own Say World is Small

Ralph Buchan, who is now Chief Pharmacist for Uncle Sam at the General Hospital, Pearl Harbor, Hawaiian Islands, thinks the world is very small after all, although when he crossed the broad Pacific it seemed a long ways from the good old U. S. A. The other day he recognized in a new apprentice a familiar look, and upon questioning him found out that the young sailor was a son of A. M. Hardman of Glen Ellen, who had enlisted about six months ago. As chief pharmacist, Buchan had the appointment of an apprentice to serve under him and he straightway appointed young Hardman.

Ordinarily the bright Sonoma boy who made such rapid rise in the hospital marine service would have had to wait longer for advancement but the war gave him the opportunity to take the examination for Chief Pharmacist with the result that he passed with high honors.

He now has his own quarters and many privileges.

Ralph Buchan is the only son of Mrs. Kate Buchan and grandson of Mrs. J. A. Pope the wonderful pioneer mother and former lady merchant, now eighty years of age. A Christmas visit from the young naval man is hoped for by his near and dear ones.

O'BRIEN CITATION IS DISMISSED

The citation issued for Nellie O'Brien, which was returnable Monday before Judge Denny, was dismissed.

The action sought to punish defendant for alleged violation of a restraining order of the Superior Court in the matter of using certain water from Lennox Creek, contended for by the Sonoma Valley Water, Light and Power Company.

Mervyn Bish spent Saturday night and Sunday with his parents at Madrone.

The E. H. Johannsen's visited Blue Rock Springs near Vallejo last Sunday.

Frank LeVine is expected back from Winters.

Miss Rooney, the Spreckles mare, driven by Joe Ryan at the Dixon race meet, took second money. She won the first heat handily.

The Don Theatre will show local pictures, scenes and people on the screen this week, also the regular fine films.

Bill Kehoe is in town greeting his many friends.

COOLNESS

There's nothing so cool as an oil stove for summer cooking. All the heat is concentrated on the cooking and not radiated about the kitchen.

Cooks everything any wood or coal range will cook, and cooks it better, because of the steady, evenly-distributed heat.

Use it all the year 'round—more convenient than a wood or coal stove, and more economical.

The long blue chimneys prevent all smoke and smell. In 1, 2, 3 and 4 burner sizes, with or without ovens. Also cabinet models. Ask your dealer today.

The doctor and his family will be greatly missed at the "Home," for they have become the friends of all who have had the pleasure of meeting them.

Judgment for the plaintiff in the sum of $4,421 has been awarded Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kunde by Judge T. C. Denny in the superior court in their action for $20,000 damages against Manuel B. McCormick of San Francisco. Of the total judgment Denny gives $4,000 as pecuniary damages. Geary & Geary were attorneys for the plaintiffs and the suit was a bitterly contested one. Among other things it was found that at the time William Kunde was run down and killed by an automobile on the Sonoma road, driven by McCormick, the latter was an inexperienced driver.

BURLINGAME'S MOSQUITO CRUSADE SUCCESSFUL

With the determination of Sonoma Valley's Mosquito Abatement Board to wipe out the mosquitoes which infest the otherwise ideal locality at certain periods every season, the following assurance of the success of such a campaign as experienced in Burlingame will be of interest. We quote from the "Advance."

The Argentine ant pest which is yearly becoming more of a problem in Burlingame will perhaps be the next nuisance to be tackled by the trustees of the Mosquito Abatement Board. The mosquito destruction has been a complete success in this district. Each year since the work was started has seen a diminution of the mosquitoes and this year they seem to have been entirely eliminated, although there has been much favorable weather for the mosquito. The ant problem is much easier to solve and when once tackled the enemy will yield if the proper methods are employed.

MRS. WHITING TO BE IN HOSPITAL SOME TIME

Mrs. S. H. Whiting, who was injured by an automobile last week in San Francisco, is in the Long Hospital and may be there for some time. While no bones were broken the patient is suffering from painful injuries to one of her limbs. The ligaments are torn and the bruises sustained are very deep.

Mrs. Whiting's condition is said to be improved at latest accounts but she may not return to her pretty home Rocky Haven, again this season which will be much regretted by her many friends in Sonoma Valley.

NO MORE MACADAM STREETS NOW

The city of Richmond, Contra Costa county, noted for its splendid streets, because it is a new city and everything about it is modern, has placed a ban on water macadam and oil macadam streets and the city engineer of that city has shown the authorities that streets of those types are not practicable and will not stand the wear and tear. So no more water macadam or oil macadam streets will be built in that city and all work will be permanent and will consist of concrete base with asphalt or other similar wearing surface.

Mrs. A. Baker is enjoying a trip to San Francisco.

A. L. Wells has returned from an outing up the coast.

A pretty new home is being built by Contractor Murphy in the Clements tract on lower Broadway, for Mr. Hays, a retired S. F. business man.

FAIR TRAVELER REVIEWS TRIP

Dr. Wm. J. G. Dawson and Miss Ida Dawson, his daughter, have returned from an extended visit through the Eastern States and Canada and have brought back much of interest in regard to war preparations and effect observed on their trip.

Miss Ida Dawson has kindly consented to give some of these notes and diary excerpts made on the trip to the Index-Tribune and the interesting observations are herewith published:

Observations on War Preparedness and Effect Gathered in New York City and Canada.

By Ida E. Dawson

At the main headquarters of the Red Cross in New York City there was wonderful bustle and hustle. Everybody was busy—men and women, but principally women.

Wealthy women, poor women, all classes and stations of life, working side by side, all with the one aim—eager to accomplish the gigantic task undertaken.

A complete upper story of some building, conveniently located was given gratis to the Red Cross for its quarters.

Capable women were chosen to instruct in the making, marking and packing of these supplies. All volunteer work.

Capable women gathered raw material of all kinds for surgical supplies.

Many of the wealthy ladies have proved very helpful workers. They are really interested and often save the rent of some branch office by giving several rooms in their own splendid homes, and the rent thus saved is put toward buying more supplies.

Each worker is given a uniform or white apron (regulation nurse's) a scarf in one with the Red Cross insignia worked on the forehead. Some of the women are very attractive in this regalia and of course there are always pretty girls. These girls are put in the demonstrating window to attract the attention of the passer-by and get him or her at least curious and then interested in the work being done inside.

VINEBURG

Messrs. Romaro de Martini, Sisto Rasorial and Andrien Ferrari, all well known business men of San Francisco, motored through here on Tuesday afternoon as the guests of Mr. August Figone, proprietor of the Vineburg Wine Vaults, and were on their way to St. Helena and vicinity on a deer hunt. All the gentlemen are experts and we await results of their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Groskopf with sons, Chas. and Alois, motored to San Rafael and Ross Valley on Sunday last and at Ross were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Seelinger. "Smiling Charlie held the wheel of the six cylinder and all enjoyed a pleasant trip.

We have received some very flat-tering offers to start a matrimonial agency in Vineburg but on account of being so young and inexperienced, we respectfully declined. But never mind, "Ruttie," in case you need a good husband, let us know and we will sure land you one.

The orchardists in this vicinity are now busy shipping large quantities of fruit of all kinds, and our general station agent seems to be as happy as ever because Grove knows his business, believe me.

A record breaking house greeted the picture show at Marten's Pavilion on Tuesday evening when Messrs. Collins & Mohr presented "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." Everyone present enjoyed the pictures.

We understand that two of Vineburg's largest gardeners are going to put bids into the government for beans and potatoes. Louis Rouque says that the "Sammies" in France must have beans, and Marshal Enrico Forni says they must have "spuds" if he has to stay up all night to water them.

It is no use for the Associated Canneries to try to bluff our Marshall Henry Forni, as he will not sign up on any terms. He has picked his crop, which amounts to 108 pounds and he says he will can them himself if he has to go broke.

During the last ten days four carloads of empty cannery boxes were unloaded at Batto's spur, amounting to 5,000 boxes to move the pear crop in this vicinity. This year Vineburg has pears to can.

Mrs. W. J. Hiser departed on the afternoon train last Tuesday on an extended visit to friends and relatives in the East, the lady's destination being the home of her mother and brothers at Wilson, Kansas. But she will visit Salk Lake and many other points. The many friends of Mrs. Hiser wish her a pleasant time.
